

Prove It! by Kenexa®

Williams County

A proud partner of the American Job Center network

WEDCO invites you to the first Round Table Discussion of 2017!

Presentation by, Ohio Means Jobs Williams County, Pam Johnson & Cheryl Renard

If you're looking to hire or promote an employee, this program is for you!

Tuesday, February 28th, 2017, 8AM-9AM

Williams County Community Offices – Conference Room A&B

1425 East High Street, Bryan OH 43506

Pam will be presenting on the Prove It assessment program and will be providing employers with a complete 2017 list of the assessment tools (tests).

Please RSVP by February 27, 2017 to

Megan Puehler, office@wedco.info

or call (419) 636-8727

“Prove it” is formerly known as “Job Skills”, an assessment program for employers.

There will be a demonstration of the tool;
Microsoft 2013 in both the complete test and the customized test to show the difference.

The Williams County OhioMeansJobs center is a partnership of state and local agencies and organizations that provide cost free employment-related services to job seekers and employers. Services are made available through federal, state and local funding.

This event is open to WEDCO members and nonmembers.

Visit www.wedco.info for more information.